and Cards of Thanks
must be paid for in advance to insure publication.

THE Hazel Green Academy will begin its commencement week with an entertainment by the primary department on Saturday night, the 28th inst. We have not the program at hand, but it will suffice to say that in all respects it will equal any of the former entertainments of its class. Commencement day will be on Wednesday, June 1, and a large crowd from a distance will be present, as usual, to witness the entertainment on the evening of that day. Every citizen of the town should do his or her utmost to make these "strangers within our gates" feel perfectly at home, for it is through them and their good will largely that Hazel Green Academy has gained its prestige and popularity. Let everyone bid them welcome and let us so deport ourselves that they may know it is not self interest or deceit upon our part, that we look upon them as our own people in all that helps to build up the mountains, and especially its educational interests.

OLIVER KASH, the census enumerator for this precinct, finished his work last week, and he is about the only one in the county who did so, at least as far as we have been able to learn. "Our Man About Town" asked him the total population in the district, and he replied that he had not then added it up, but to the best of his knowledge it would be from 1,600 to 1,800. Mr. Kash is to be congratulated upon the facility with which he finished his work, and the Census Bureau is likewise to be congratulated upon having such an efficient enumerator. If all in the county of Wolfe were as painstaking and polite as he proved to be our county will have lost no gained any in population, but stand with a solid count.

Will Fly In Louisville.

The people of Kentucky at last are to have an opportunity to see aeroplanes in flight, with real bird men soaring high in the air and executing difficult and interesting evolutions with no other sustaining power than the planes and motors.

The Louisville Times has announced that a great aviation meet is to be held in Louisville on June 18-19 at Churchill Downs, under the auspices of that paper, at which some of the world's most noted aviators will be seen with their wonderful aircrafts. Most prominent among these will be Glenn H. Curtis, whose daring achievements both here and abroad have stamped him as a peerless bird man.

Such others as Charles F. Willard, Charles K. Hamilton, Horace F. Wild, "Bud" Mars and C. K. Bates will also be in the contests for the supremacy of the air.

The comparatively recent advancement in the science of aviation has been such as to startle the entire world and the daily accounts of broken records show that there are still great possibilities for unheard of adventures by the "sky pilots" That records may be broken at the Louisville meet is extremely likely from the fact that experts have declared the Churchill Downs course an ideal place for such meets and again for the reason that unusually fortunate dates have been secured. Weather reports for years past show that the wind velocity for the last half of June is the slowest of any time in the year in Kentucky, and, of course, this is conducive to the easy handling of the great machines.

It is expected that low rates will be secured on all railroads leading into Louisville for these two days and it is expected that record-breaking crowds will flock to the historic race course, where heretofore the Kentucky thoroughbred has held undisputed sway.

E. FULLER, Jr., of Lexington, connected with the New Domain Oil Co., was again in town Tuesday, and incidentally it was learned that he contemplates locating some test wells near Hazel Green. Should these wells prove of any value they will eventually help the people of Hazel Green, and we hope Mr. Fuller may find it convenient to make several tests in nearby territory.

DR. B. CLARKE HYDE, whom a jury at Kansas City, Mo., on Monday found guilty of murdering Col. Thomas H. Swope and sentenced to life imprisonment, owes his conviction to his own testimony on the witness stand, says Juror Crone. Crone is in reality the man who pronounced the physician's punishment. Until Sunday night Crone and S. R. Johnson, a farmer, held out for acquittal against the rest of the jurors. Remembering Dr. Hyde's demeanor on the stand, Crone finally decided the accused man was guilty, and voted for his conviction. He then convinced Johnson, making the verdict unanimous. "Dr. Hyde was his own worst enemy in the trial," said Crone. "His own testimony convicted him."

The Sow vs. the Hen.

The hen has had her inning, her "lay" has been repeatedly sung as the great money producer until she has almost superseded the eagle as the American bird. Her egg product has been counted until she has paid the national debt several times over. But the hen is now overshadowed by the sow. There is no sentiment about a sow, but there is lots of money. The pigsty has put the poultry house in the shade and a grunt now means more than a cackle. The sow is now more important on the farm than the horse, the mule or even the hen. A hen may produce in a year a good many eggs which will give the farmer's wife a good deal of pin money, but a sow in a year will produce enough pigs to pay for a handsome tailor made suit or a few pattern hats. The hen always quits laying when eggs are the highest, but the sow has just as many pigs when pork is selling at $11.00 per hundred as when it is down to $4.99. Talk about your Standard Oil stock, a sow pays bigger dividends than even John D. can afford on his monopoly. The sow has never gotten her head up as high as a hen, goes about her business in very downcast and lowly way, but she gets there all the same. Her grunt is sweeter music to the speculative farmer than the mockingbird which sings from his leafy bower. If she tips the beam at 250 pounds she is worth on the market $25, but if she stays on the farm her pigs in one year will sell for $50. She declares a two hundred per cent dividend annually on her par value. She is both a pig and a wealth producer. She is paying off mortgages on the farm and causing the farmer to ride around in automobiles and smoke ten cent cigars. Let the hen go way back and "set" while Mrs. Sow ambles to the front and produces more gold than the mines of Golconda. When Gen. Wyler referred to us as "Yankee pigs" he never dreamed how Yankee pigs would soar. Keep the sows at home and raise pigs.—Elizabethtown News.

AN ORDINANCE

FOR THE PROTECTION OF SCHOOLS AND THEIR ATHLETIC GAMES.

May 16. BLACK EYES.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, dependent upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Money due when the mare proves in foal, or bred to another horse or jack, or traded away, and a lien on the colt will be retained to secure service money.

SELM is a dark chestnut sorrel, 16 hands 3 inches high, with white stockings on hind feet. He is 7 years old this spring. He was sired by Pat Washington, a celebrated saddle stallion of Fayette county, and out of a mare by Golden Chief, combined horse.

This fine young jack will make the season at the same barn at $5 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT.

On same conditions as those of the horse. DEMPSEY is a red sorrel, 14 hands 3 inches high, 4 years old August coming. He is out of a Black Mammoth jennet, and by Sam Brown's Red Dempsey. Breeders who have seen him pronounce him a model jack. All possible care taken to prevent accidents, but I will not be responsible should any occur. W. C. SEBASTIAN.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

The Adjutant General's department has mustered in a new company of state guards at Barbourville. It has 61 men and J. F. Capron is captain.

The Madison County Fiscal Court has ordered that the Jailor of that county shall be paid a salary of $60 per month for taking care of the jail.

Governor Willson Monday appointed Jackson Morris as his private secretary, to succeed McKenzie Todd, who was recently appointed State Inspector and Examiner.

At Lexington options have been taken on Main street property by L. H. Ramsey and others, with a view to the erection of a $150,000 theater, to be completed by February 1 next.

Owing to lack of funds it has been decided to discontinue the free public library at Bellevue, which was inaugurated several years ago under the auspices of the Socialist party.

A double-headed coal freight train on the C. & O. railroad near England Hill, a short distance from Catlettsburg, was wrecked last Thursday. One man was killed and three others very badly hurt.

Cecil Anderson, a member of the Georgetown College baseball team, was accidentally struck in the temple with a ball by Pitcher Hillenmeyer, of the State University team. He is in a critical condition.

Miss Taylor Jackson and Mrs. George Kelly were indicted at Henderson on the charge of aiding prisoners to escape from the Henderson county jail by furnishing saws and files to Roy Keller, a prisoner in the jail, charged with a felony. They were arrested.

R. N. Maddox and J. W. Brown, the University of Kentucky students who held up Hull Williams, a negro porter, and relieved him of $10, were fined $100 and costs each in the Lexington Police court. The charge of robbery was changed to breach of the peace.

Disregarding the statement of Sarah Williams that she had been persuaded to plead guilty to the charge of murdering Carrie Taylor, upon the promise that she would be given a pardon, Governor Willson has declined to extend executive clemency to the woman.

Governor Willson appointed the following delegates to attend the national meeting of Charities and Corrections at St. Louis, May 19-29: Mrs. R. P. Halleck, Miss Frances Ingram, Miss Harriet Anderson, M. B. Barker, Edward Grauman and Colonel Thomas D. Osborne.

Beginning with the next term, the students entering the Lexington High School will have the privilege of selecting from any one of six courses—an art course, a general high school course, a scientific course, a classical course, a commercial course and a manual training course.

Lee county has increased the salaries of her officers, as follows: The County Judge, County Attorney and Superintendent of Schools were raised to $800 per year each, while the County Clerk was allowed a yearly salary of $400 in addition to the fees of his office. They are all Republicans and natural grafters, of course.

Few, if any, contracts for flour for the charitable institutions of the state will be given out of Kentucky. Most of the superintendents of the asylums would rather have the hard wheat flour from the Northwest, as they claim that it is slightly cheaper and makes lighter bread, but the members of the board are going to keep their money at home.

Lewis Cook, a native of Beaver creek, met an untimely death Saturday on Otter creek, being trampled to death by a horse. It appears that Cook was intoxicated, and was accompanied by a woman. They both being horseback, and he unable to support himself, fell from the saddle and was stepped on in the region of lungs. Death was not instantaneous, but followed a few hours later. Cook leaves a family of several children.

The engineers are at work making the survey for the railroad bridge that is to be constructed across the Big Sandy river at Auxier for the North East Coal company. The coal openings are also being located and within a short time that section will be a very busy one. The town site has been located on the west side of the river, on the farm recently purchased from Henry Litteral, and will probably be named Auxier.

Louisville may lose the First Regiment of the Kentucky National Guard as an entirety. The First Regiment, however, will not be mustered out. There are more companies ready to go into the Second Regiment than there are places for them, for the Second Regiment is full up at present, and Major Longmire, who accompanied the inspecting officer from the United States Army on his inspection tour recently, reports the regiment in better condition than it has ever been since he has been in the guard.

Where is Your Hair?

In your comb? Why so? Is not the head a much better place for it? Better keep what is left where it belongs! Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, quickly stops falling hair. There is not a particle of doubt about it. We speak very positively about this, for we know.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

Indeed, the one great leading feature of our new Hair Vigor may well be said to be this—it stops falling hair. Then it goes one step further—it aids nature in restoring the hair and scalp to a healthy condition. Ask for "the new kind."

THE HERALD.

Miss Ada Henry, of Bonny, was in town shopping Wednesday.

Tibbs brothers are painting the residence of Mrs. Lula Kash with a pure white coat.

Wanted—Immediately, 10 teams to haul railroad ties. Call on JOHN D. ROSE, Lexie, Ky.

Claud Day and wife moved into the Jordan Wills property Monday and are now citizens of Hazel Green.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

"Our Man About Town" met Roger Bryan and Mr. Faris, of Winchester, both of them traveling tourists.

Prof. Willoughby's wife, child and mother have come to Hazel Green to live. We welcome them in our midst.

Read the new Racket store ad of J. T. Day, especially if you want a set of nice furniture or an elegant dress pattern.

Our near neighbor, Mrs. Buck Hollon, was taken quite sick Sunday and has been suffering considerably since that time.

Mrs. Jim Bush, of Grassy creek, has been quite sick, and her son-in-law, James Lawson, wife and children are now visiting her.

Mrs. Robert Cecil and sister, Sue Long, visited on Grassy Friday and Saturday to attend the bedside of their uncle, who is ill.

There was a watch party held at Mrs. Lula Kash's Tuesday night to see the comet, and the party had a nice supper with the hostess at 1 o'clock.

We have the consolation this morning that if the comet did destroy creation last night it got some of our delinquents that we could not touch.

News reached here Tuesday that Isaac Miller was thrown from a mule, had his shoulder dislocated and was otherwise injured. Particulars are very sparse.

Misses Bertie Cecil and Nancy Rose were in town shopping Wednesday. Miss Bertie is clerking at Lee City and will continue her work through the summer.

Ves Norman and Andy Blankenship are weather boarding the addition to J. T. Day's Racket store house, and will possibly complete the building before they quit.

Wanted—And at once, a woman to cook, wash and iron. Best wages and easiest home in town. Apply to SPENCER COOPER, Hazel Green, Ky.

The special examination for the teachers' course was held at the academy Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The regular examination of the school will take place next week.

Miss Phoebe Sparks, of Grassy creek, on the farm of Mrs. South Oldfield, is quite sick, and public opinion is to the effect that she has consumption. Her sister, Nan, who lives with Mrs. Lula Kash, is attending her bedside.

Miss Sue Long's Recital.

On Saturday night Miss Susie Long gave a recital at Pearre Hall Chapel which was said by those present to be very fine. Susie is quite an elocutionist and her pleasant appearance on the rostrum renders her especially attractive. Some of her friends, including Miss Florence Miller, a graduate in elocution, want her to repeat her recital at West Liberty and Jackson, and she may obey their overtures. The following are a few of the recitations rendered in her program Saturday night, and at the termination of each piece tumultuous applause greeted her: Riley's "Little Cripple"; Shakespeare: Scenes from Macbeth; George Elliott: "The Mill on the Floss"—extracts; Owen Meredith: "Aux Italiens." A good sized and appreciative audience was present. We regret that lateness of receipt of the recital compels us to curtail this notice.

The May Stock Sale.

Notwithstanding the fact that our last sale was but little advertised, there were several transactions in stock of different kinds. Among them we note:

Sebron Walter bought eight head of yearling heifers from Arlie Cecil for $110.

Charley Rose bought 24 head of young cattle from Newton Maloney, of Lacy creek. Also a yearling bull from Steve Rose, of the same creek, for $85. Two cows from a drove belonging to a Mr. Caldwell, at $42 and $35, respectively.

Sebron Walter bought two yearlings from a drove for $34.

John Sebastian, of Daysboro, bought a cow from Steve Rose, of Lacy creek, but the price was not learned.

John M. Rose disposed of a lot of hogs, two of them being to Steve Rose for $22.

Social At Consolation.

A social was given in honor of Misses Emma Gibbs, Josie Gibbs and Ida Nickell, of Gillmore, at the residence of Columbus Gillespie, near Consolation, Saturday night, and everything went as merry as the chimes of marriage bells until midnight. A large number of young people of the neighborhood were present and all the old-time games of socials were indulged in with a few modern innovations. Who knows but the result will be a few marriages in the not far distant future? One might conclude so from the lovelight in the eyes of several couples.

The Value of Tiling.

Joseph P. Rose, living close to town and on the waters of Lacy creek, has put in 1,000 or more feet of tiling. Ellis Johnson, living on the same tributary of Red river, above Mr. Rose, has put in 1,900 feet or more and likes it so well that he will treble the quantity, and John B. Kash, living on Red river, below Hazel Green, has put in several hundred feet. All of these gentlemen are delighted with what they have done and each of them claims that it will redeem much land heretofore practically useless. If you have wet land, why not do like them?

Liberal Terms.

I am representing the largest retail clothiers in the world, who are operating 75 stores in the United States, all selling on the original plan of no money down and the easy payment of $1 each week.

I have just received a complete line of Samples for the Spring and Summer seasons, which will include an extended and elaborate variety of colors.

BURNS ELAM, Agent, Lock box 5, Hazel Green, Ky.

Dies From the Effects of Burns.

A boy at Campton died from the effects of burns Monday night, and it is learned that his clothing caught fire from matches in his pocket. He was only about five years old, and after being burned it appears he crawled to a nearby branch and extinguished the fire, but he was so badly burned that death relieved him of his suffering Monday night. His name was Allen, but whose son was not learned.

Wanted—At once 5,000 railroad ties, delivered at Hazel Green. Apply to J. T. DAY.

A crowd from Cannel City, among whom were M. L. Conley, Alex. Snowden and South Stamper, passed through our town en route to Campton to attend court last week.

There was meeting at Public Square Sunday and Rev. Lil Hosaker, who conducted the service, had quite a large congregation, as it was the first time services have been held there for some time.

Misses Minnie and Lill Oldfield, of Consolation, visited Misses Emma and Ethel Oldfield, at Daysboro, Saturday night, and were accompanied home Sunday by Roscoe Wilson.

Oscar McNabb last week sold his farm, about 350 acres, to Robert Miller for $6,500. The tract embraces the old Swango farm and the old Toliver place, and a survey might run up the whole to close to 400 acres.

Pop Ross, the well-known washerwoman of this place, left Sunday to visit her son in Indiana, walking from here to Rothwell, where she took the train for Mt. Olivet, where she will rest a few days before going to the Hoosier state.

A. Lynn Perry and a young man learning sign painting under him, by the name of Haggard, are painting the residence of R. J. McLin. Before Mr. Perry leaves town he will paint a few signs, and he is a sign writer with few equals.

Reuben Anderson, of Gillmore, was thrown from a mule Tuesday morning and had his left wrist dislocated. Taylor Center dressed his wrist by bandaging after putting the joints in place, and he is now carrying the wounded member in a sling and walking around.

Robert L. Rose, of Lee City, passed through here Monday with two prisoners for violating the internal revenue law by bootlegging. He came from Lee City Sunday night and by daylight Monday had arrested his men, which shows that Bob is a hustler in Uncle Sam's service.

George Oldfield, of Consolation, has a Duroc-Jersey sow that has made a remarkable record as a pig producer. Last week she presented him with 18 pigs—all living. If all of our farmers would go to raising hogs with the zeal of Mr. Oldfield the price of meat would fall with a thud.

The ball game here Saturday between the Campton team and the academy nine, played on the grounds of the latter, resulted in a victory for the home boys, the score being seven to six. By the way, the Campton boys have a new uniform, which is quite pretty. It is a violet blue, and is very becoming.

Come In and Settle Up.

As Mr. C. F. Kash, of the firm of Kash, Johnson & Kash, will withdraw from the firm at an early date, it is absolutely imperative that all accounts must be settled up at once. This is to notify all who are indebted to said firm to come in and settle by note or account as they must be settled within the next 30 days. Meantime goods will be sold cheaper than ever to let Mr. Kash out and if you want bargains now is your chance. Respectfully, KASH, JOHNSON & KASH.

Jahle Phillips had a narrow escape Saturday while driving a wagon from Helechawa to Hazel Green. To avoid a mudhole he drove around onto a piece of ground that had been shrubbed, but a stump was high enough to hit the brake bar, and the handle of the brake hit him on the head, raising a lump as large as a duck egg. He said Sunday his head felt as heavy as his body.

Fair Warning.

Several times I have asked subscribers who are in arrears to come in and pay up so that I can pay my just debts. A few have come to my relief, but, alas, the great majority pay no attention to my appeals, and patience has worn out the seat of his pantaloons waiting for them to pay. This is the last time I shall ask them and if they are not squared up by June 1, 1910, they will have to pay a collector. Hoping I may have but few names to turn over to collectors, I am

Kash—Swango.

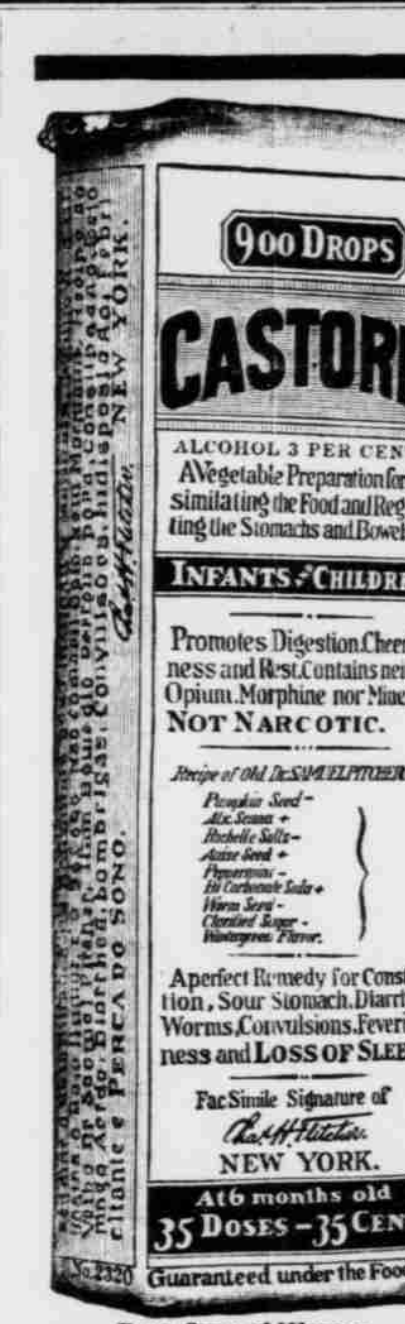

Dr. Daniel Kash and Miss Louie Swango were married Thursday at the residence of the bride's father, Silas Swango, of Stillwater, Rev. John Barker performing the ceremony. The groom is one of our promising young practicing physicians, aged 28 years, and the bride is about 19. She is said by those who know her to be prepossessing and a favorite among her friends. After the ceremony the bridal couple and attendants, Sam Kash and wife, of Hazel Green, and Will Kash and wife, of Jackson, repaired to the residence of the groom's parents, Alf Kash and wife, where they were regaled with a royal repast. THE HERALD extends congratulations.

A BARGAIN IN BUSINESS.

DESIRING to change location two of the firm of Kash, Johnson & Kash are determined to withdraw, even though they sacrifice the stock. It is the opportunity for people who need goods, as everything will be sold at less profit than any other merchant in Eastern Kentucky can afford. HIT NOW, WHILE THE IRON IS HOT! Preferably, however, we will sell the entire stock, invoiced, house and fixtures at a great sacrifice. This is the opportunity of a lifetime for any one who wishes to engage in the mercantile trade, as our health will not permit us to continue. Being on the corner of Main and Broadway it is the most desirable location in Hazel Green, for YOU CATCH TRADE "GWINE AN' ACOMIN'." It is on the spot where once stood the old Pieratt Hotel, a celebrated hostelry in its day, famous all over Eastern Kentucky. We want to sell in bulk, and if you'll meet us half way we can make a dicker. Respectfully yours, KASH, JOHNSON & KASH. By C. F. KASH. 4611

AMERICA'S GREATEST WEEKLY.

The Best Known Newspaper

CIRCULATION, - - - 200,000
Popular in Every State.

The seventy-fourth year of its existence finds the Toledo Blade more popular than at any period of its remarkable career. It is now read each week by more than a million people. Its field is not circumscribed by State boundaries, but involves the length and breadth of the United States, giving it an unquestionable right of claiming to be the greatest national weekly newspaper in the country.

The Weekly Blade is distinctly a family newspaper. The one object of its publishers has always been to make it fit for the American home, for the fireside, and of interest to every member of the family. To fulfill this purpose it is kept clean and wholesome, the news of the world is handled in a comprehensive manner, and the various departments of the Blade are edited with painstaking care. The household page is a delight to the women and children; current affairs are treated editorially without prejudice; the serial stories are selected with the idea of pleasing the greatest number of fiction lovers; the Question Bureau is a scrapbook of information; the Farmstead columns are conducted with the purpose of giving the patrons a medium for the exchange of ideas and information on farm topics. No department is neglected, but every feature is taken care of with the idea of making the Blade worth many times the price of subscription—one dollar a year. Sample copies mailed free. Address,

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING STOCK FROM RUNNING AT LARGE IN HAZEL GREEN.

At a meeting pursuant to an adjournment the Council met at Kash, Johnson & Kash's office,
May 9, 1910, with the following officers present: M. V. Roberts, Chairman; Dr. Taylor Center, Q.
C. Daniel, Wm. Johnson and M.
S. Campbell, members, the following business being transacted: An Ordinance to prevent cattle, including horses, mules, asses, sheep, hogs, goats, cows, bulls, oxen and calves, from running at large in the town of Hazel Green, Ky., the Board of Trustees of the town of Hazel Green do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. That no cattle, including horses, mules, asses, sheep, hogs, goats, cows, bulls, oxen and calves of any kind or age shall be permitted to go at large upon any of the streets, alleys or unenclosed lots or grounds in the town of Hazel Green. And it shall be unlawful and a violation of this ordinance for the owner of any such property to permit it to go at large upon any of the streets, alleys or unenclosed lots or ground in the town of Hazel Green.
The foregoing shall not apply where such are merely driven or rode thru said town for the purpose of being slaughtered or to be placed in any pen or enclosure, or taken beyond the boundaries of the said town. Should any such animal be found going at large in violation of this ordinance the same may be taken up by the Poundmaster of said town or by the person on whose property or premises such animal may be found, and in the latter case it shall be turned over to the said Poundmaster of said town at once, and the said Poundmaster shall take such animal or animals to some enclosed place by him provided for the confinement of said animal, and the same shall be there kept until released by law, or as herein provided.

SECTION 2. The officer taking up or impounding any such animal under the last section shall within 24 hours make a statement of the fact in writing, under oath, stating the name of the owner, if known, and file said statement with the Judge of the Hazel Green Police Court, where it shall be kept as part of the record of the said Hazel Green Police Court. If name of the owner be unknown the officer shall so state in the statement heretofore required to be filed, and a description of the animal or animals so taken and impounded by him shall be given in the said statement. If the said statement shall disclose the name of the owner of such animal or animals the Judge of said Court shall issue a summons against said owner commanding him to appear in said court not less than three days from the date of the execution of said summons to show cause, if any he can, why he shall not be fined one dollar for violation of the preceding section, and why such animal shall not be sold to satisfy the cost of and charges of taking up, keeping or selling same, if such statement or affidavit shall state that the owner of said animal or animals is unknown to affiant or is absent from Wolfe County, Kentucky. No summons shall be issued but it shall be the duty of the Police Judge to post at the post office in the town of Hazel Green and at the pound kept by the said Poundmaster a written or printed notice describing the stock taken up and when and by whom, and the amount of cost and expenses of keeping, and requiring the owner to appear before the Judge of the Hazel Green Police Court at a time specified in the notice, not less than five days from the posting of the notice, to show cause, if any he has or can, why the stock shall not be sold as provided by this ordinance. If such owner has been notified as herein provided, either by summons executed or notice posted, the Court shall determine upon his failing to appear and defend or upon his defense having been adjudged insufficient, that there has been a violation of said section by such animal or animals having run at large in said town, the Court shall order describing such animal or animals, and any mark thereon, and direct the said poundmaster to sell the same at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash in hand. The poundmaster shall
